WASHINGTON PARK NEXT YEAR.

The close of the most largely attended race meeting ever held in America has been fittingly marked by the announcement of a meeting at Washington Park to run from June 24 to July 22, 1901. In recognition of the unparalleled success of the meeting this year, the Washington Park Club announces that the added money to its stake list for 1901 will compare with that of this year as follows:

	Added Money.	Increase.
The American Derby.....	$20,000	$10,000
The Drexel Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Edgewater Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Englewood Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Great Western Handicap.....	3,000	1,000
The Hyde Park Stakes.....	5,000	3,000
The Kenwood Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Lakeside Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Midway Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Oakwood Handicap.....	2,500	1,000
The Quickstep Stakes.....	2,000	500
The Sheridan Stakes.....	4,000	2,000
The Turf Congress Handicap.....	4,000	2,000
The Wheeler Handicap.....	7,500	3,500
Four new stakes.....	8,000	8,000

Total.....$68,000 $34,000
It is also announced that $1,000 or more will be added to all overnight handicaps and that no purse will be of less value than $600.

THE ROMAN'S WHEELER HANDICAP.

Washington Park's excellent twenty-five-day meeting came to a sensational close Saturday when Orimar, carrying 109 pounds, won the last race, which was at one mile, in 1:38 flat, equaling the world's record for the distance, made recently by Voter at Brighton Beach.

Never before in the history of the Washington Park Club has there been such a prosperous meeting. The weather has been fine, the track at all times has been fast, the class of horses racing for the stakes and purses has been far above the average, and last, but not least, the attendance has been far above expectations. Taking the twenty-five days as a whole, there has been an average attendance of over 10,000 a day.

The main attraction for the closing day was the much-talked-of Wheeler Handicap and it furnished a contest worth going miles to see. The Roman and Pink Coat finished so close together that only the judges could separate them.

The Wheeler Handicap, in a sense, is looked upon as the most important feature of the meeting, and owners and trainers figure themselves gray-headed trying to steal a march on the handicapper and get a good horse that has raced poorly but worked well in with light weight and make a rich haul. In 1898 the Schorrs got Algol in with 107 pounds and he made a show of his field, but in the race Saturday each horse had enough weight to steady him and from start to finish it was a real horse race.

Ten originally accepted their weights for the Wheeler, but two—Tulla Fonso, 101, and Hard Knot, 106—declined the issue. This left Sidney Lucas, 123, Pink Coat, 117, Jolly Roger, 113, Macy, 115, Advance Guard, 111, The Roman, 104, Croesus, 105, and Found, 100, to compete for the $4,000 added money. The stake was worth $5,400 gross and $4,215 net to the winner.

The eight contenders keyed up to the highest pitch, were called to the post at 3:55 o'clock, and instead of parading directly past the stand after leaving the paddock, as the horses heretofore have always done, they first paraded past the club house for inspection. Each different horse had his admirers, but from both the club house and the stand Sidney Lucas seemed to monopolize the applause.

The Derby winner had Bullman up and was groomed to perfection, but he did not look as good as he did earlier during the meeting, and several times on the way to the post he pinned his ears back and showed a disposition to sulk, which is no wonder, considering the hard campaign he has had in the last month. As far as looks went Pink Coat far excelled, and as his number was one he naturally led the procession.

In the betting ring before the Wheeler one could hardly elbow his way through the crowd, and it seemed as though the entire mob were there to bet on Sidney Lucas, and at 2 to 1 several fortunes were wagered on him. Advance Guard had second call to Sidney Lucas at 13 to 5 and it was all the way from 4 to 1 up to 20 to 1 and take your pick against any of the other starters.

Starter Dwyer, who, by the way, has been in excellent form all during the meeting, wasted no time in getting the field away for the handicap, and after three minutes' delay the familiar cry of "They're off!" was heard on all sides. The break was a beauty, with Jolly Roger in front, Found second and Pink Coat third. Passing the stand for the first time Found led Macy by a length and a half, and he was only in front of Pink Coat. Found was the pacemaker throughout, and down the backstretch to the half mile post she increased her lead to three lengths. On the far turn, however, she began to tire and in fact before the stretch was reached there was a general closing up. When headed for home Advance Guard showed in front, being head and head with Pink Coat, The Roman, Jolly Roger and Sidney Lucas. At the eighth post it narrowed down to a contest between The Roman, Pink Coat and Advance Guard and passing the sixteenth post a single blanket would have covered the trio. Fifty yards out Advance Guard gave it up leaving Pink Coat and The Roman to fight it out and The Roman, with a pull, in the weights, got the decision. Poor Sidney Lucas was bumped and jostled several times and was obliged to pull up and go around his horses on the far turn, but he made his usual strong bid in the stretch and although beaten he was far from being disgraced.

Pat Dunne, who has been out of luck during the meeting, won the first and second races with Gold Badge and Star Chamber.

There was a lot of speed in the fourth race which was at one mile and Mr. Brown, to win, had to run in 1:38. Second to Mr. Brown was May Beach, who beat George Arnold a head for second place. The latter had started five times this year and won five races and this was his first defeat.

Heigh Ho, Flammaro, John Grigsby and Belle of Holmdel furnished a spectacular finish in the fifth event. The quartet was stretched across the track, making it a difficult task to tell which was first or which was fourth. Heigh Ho, however, got the decision.

Fred Foster at last took down a purse with Sam McKeever in the sixth race. Vittoe rode the Foster colt, and placing him cleverly during the early part of the route, he came with a rush in the stretch, beating Einstein by an open length.

Orimar, pulled to a walk, ran the mile in the last race in 1:38 flat. That is, 1:38 was hung out by the official timer, but everyone else on the track who timed the race caught it a second slower, and it may be possible that the official timers made a mistake. Orimar's race was quite an improvement over his last performance.

HAWTHORNE'S MEETING.

Many of the owners who have been racing at Washington Park will ship their stables to Hawthorne and run their horses at the summer

HAWTHORNE'S MEETING.

meeting of the Chicago Jockey Club, which opens Monday. Among those who will race at Hawthorne, as indicated by their stake entries, are: Green B. Morris, P. Dunne, George C. Bennett, John F. Schorr, Barney Schreiber, W. S.
Barnes, J. B. Gray, G. W. Poole, H. J. Scoggin,
T. P. Hayes, Hackett Bros. and Woodford & Buckner. The decision of Green B. Morris to remain in Chicago instead of shipping east insures the services of that popular young jockey, Bullman, whose clever riding has won him a large following.

The card for Monday is a strong one. It includes the Monadnock stakes, a one mile selling event for three-year-olds. The other features on the card are a five-furlong selling race for two-year-olds, a six-furlong dash for three-year-olds and upward, a steeplechase over the short course, a five-furlong dash for two-year-olds, and a race at 1 1-16 miles for three-year-olds and upward.

Betting at Hawthorne will be conducted on the open-ring plan, and the bookies will have their slates up just as they did at the spring meeting. Arrangements have been made to accommodate thirty-five books in the Hawthorne ring and it is expected that nearly that number will draw in on Monday. The present season has been one of heavy betting and the bookies seem to prefer the game here to that in the east.

All chance of making the proposed special stake for crack two-year-olds seems to have faded away. For a time the proposition of the Hawthorne management for a sweepstakes of $500 each, the association to add $2,000, was seriously considered but the difference of opinion among owners as to weights and distance was so great it was impossible to get them together, and the race has virtually been dropped. The Chicago Jockey Club still stands ready to give $2,000 for such a race, and allow the nominators to select the handicapper, but there is small prospect of their coming to an agreement.

The first race over the new steeplechase
course at Hawthorne will be run Monday.
Trainers who sent their horses the route yesterday say it is a great improvement over the old one and will be productive of better racing and fewer accidents.

HARLEM'S STAKES.

Nominations to Harlem's summer stake races
will close Monday night with Secretary Nath-anson. Room 201 Lakeside Building. Thus far the number of nominators to each of the events has largely exceeded the expectations of the Harlem Jockey Club. Mr. Nathanson did not anticipate more than an average of thirty nominations to any of the stakes, but in this he under-estimated the number of horsemen who desired to have contenders run for the liberal stakes offered by the Harlem people. Thus far some of the best horses in the United States have been named, and all of them are "right" and ready to race. Horsemen all over the country have responded liberally, and many letters have been received by the Harlem Jockey Club from eastern owners in which they have promised to send their horses to Harlem

after the close of the Brighton Beach and Saratoga meetings. Among the eastern contingent
W. B. Jennings, T. F. Buckley and W. L. Oliver will be perhaps the best represented in the Harlem stake races. Oliver has been soliciting entries for the coming events among the eastern horsemen, and in a letter yesterday to Secretary Nathanson he said his efforts had been highly successful.

Local horsemen have evinced much interest in the Harlem stakes. A majority of horse owners at Washington Park have already made their nominations. A large batch of nominations was received yesterday from St. Louis by Secretary Nathanson, and in the letter which accompanied them it was said that many others would be sent from the Missouri city. Assistant Secretary Chivington has been in St. Louis for two days, and it was principally through his efforts that so many entries were obtained from horsemen "at the end of the bridge." Representatives of the Harlem Jockey Club will be at Washington Park, Hawthorne and Harlem today and tomorrow for the purpose of receiving entries to the Harlem stake races. James Loughran will be the entry clerk at the south side course, Richard Stubbins will be at Hawthorne and Hart Dernham will officiate in like capacity at Harlem.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

G. W. McKee, Windsor, Ont.—The race in which Miss Shanley was entered to run July 18
was declared off and all bets made on that race are off. Miss Shanley was entered in the substituted race and won it, but it was a different race with different entries and had no relation to the race on which you bet. Your money back is all you are entitled to.

W. J. C. City.—An entry is one or more horses.
If a wager is made on a published entry of two or more horses and but one of the entry starts,
the bet stands.

E. H. S. C. A. A. City.—A loses the bet.
L. C. City.—A colt foaled December 31 is one year old the next day in racing law. Such a colt would not be eligible to race as a two-year-old with one foaled January 1 following.

HAWTHORNE FORM.

Went to post at 4:43. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Queen Dixon was much the best but Dominick had to shake her up at the end to stall off Ampere's rush. The latter was well ridden and finished strongly. Sard ran his race. Robert Jr. showed his usual early speed.
Queen Dixon, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Ampere, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Sard, show, 7 to 10.

Lady Callahan, under a strong ride, showed marked improvement and in a sharply contested finish managed to win out in the closing strides. Charley O'Brien showed speed throughout and hung on gamely in a long drive, but tired somewhat at the end. Molo hardly ran his race.
Banish and Terra Incognita ran poorly.

Winner—B. g. by Badge—Tweedledum.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 13 minutes. Start good for all but Invictus. The first four were driving to the limit. Gold Badge ran a high class race, but was extremely lucky to get through in the stretch, and was barely up in time to win. This youngster likes a route. Paletou got away well in his stride and showed a lot of speed, but hung in the last twenty yards. Southard rode a rough race on Battus. The colt bore in quite a bit in the stretch and was the cause of considerable crowding. Cora Goetz was the one that suffered by this. She was in a bad place all through the last sixteen, and right at the wire stumbled and almost fell. Omdurman finished stoutly. Lenox showed a sharp turn of speed. Sad Sam is a bad betting proposition and ran a bad race.

Scratched—19287 Bugaboo, 108.

Overweights—Sad Sam, 3 pounds.

Gold Badge, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Paletou, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Battus, show, 3 to 1. Sad Sam, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by St. Blaise—Soncy Lass.

Went to post at 3:20. Off at the second break to a good start. Won handily at the end after an early drive; second, third and fourth doing their best. Star Chamber was the best as the race was run and at the weights, and scored like a good colt. Flaunt, conceding a lot of weight and under a lazy ride, ran a good race. Minyon is rounding out and may be hard to beat when next out. She was bumped into and sharply interfered with by Star Chamber at the head of the stretch. Etta did not get fully in her stride until the stretch was reached, then she closed a lot of ground. She seems to be rounding to. Scarlet Lily got a bad ride and did not run to the mark.

Scratched—19291 Lomond, 107.

Winner—B. h. by Brutus—Beauty.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a terrific drive of two. Third and fourth were also under great pressure. The Roman had a pull in the weights and this enabled him to win. He was outrun in the first part of the race and none too well ridden, but when the others hung in the stretch he came on, displaying great gameness. Pink Coat, under an excellent ride, ran a high-class race. He is a stake horse, every inch of him, and from now on will be hard to beat. Advance Guard took the longest route and was generally poorly ridden. He appeared to be winning at the head of the stretch, but Mathews was of but little or no help to him at the end. Jolly Roger ran his race. So did Sidney Lucas, who was conceding much weight to all the other starters. The colt also had a rough journey, in fact he was poorly ridden. Found showed her usual amount of speed, but the route was too far. Croesus was outclassed and never a contender. Macy was prominent for three-quarters, then died away. It was a good handicap and furnished a grand contest.

Scratched—19307 Hard Knot, 106; (19327) Tulla Fonso, 101.

The Roman, place, 1 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Pink Coat, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Advance Guard, place, evens; show, 3 to 5. Jolly Roger, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Sidney Lucas, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Bramble—Little Bess.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. It was a terrific drive between the next two. Mr. Brown displayed extraordinary speed and gameness and ran far above expectations. He seems to be a colt of good class and smashed the track record into smithereens. May Beach's performance was a fine one and on her Bullman rode a fine race. The filly had it hammer and tongs with John A. Morris in the first part of the race and then gamely stalled off George Arnold's rush in the stretch. This is perhaps the best race May Beach ever ran. George Arnold seemed to be able to go to the front at any time on the far turn but when Caywood let him down the horse seemed to be all out. Belle of Memphis acted badly at the post and was the cause of all the delay, but she eventually got away well and ran a good race. When John A. Morris stopped he stopped all over. Wax was outclassed.

Scratched—19373 Flaunt, 100.

Overweights—Wax, 5 pounds; May Beach, 11.

Winner—B. m. by Hymyar—Janet.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. The first four were close together and hard at it. In the last fifty yards there was a general closing up and the finish was a spectacular one. Heigh Ho got away flying, had clear sailing and was lucky throughout. As the race was run Flamaro was the best. He was bumped and jostled at every turn and never really had clear sailing as he finished on the extreme inside hemmed in on the rail. John Grigsby took the longest route and Knight rode a rather lazy race on him. Belle of Holmdel awoke with a start and ran a smashing good race. Tilly Ann made up much ground in the last quarter. Aloha II. can win when placed right. Patroon showed no speed and was beaten off all the way.

Scratched—19373 Parmenion, 109; 19348 Emigre, 105; 19291 Lomond, 101; 19267 Jim W., 103; 19373 Bior, 99.

Overweights—Belle of Holmdel, 11 pounds; Flamaro, 3 1/2.

Heigh Ho, place, evens; show, out. Flamaro, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. John Grigsby, place, evens; show, out. Patroon, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Sam Lucas—Etta McKeever.

Went to post at 5:55. Off at the second break to a good start. Won handily at the end after a hard early drive; second and third were doing their best. Sam McKeever ran true to form and a good race. He was cleverly placed during the early part of the journey and Vititoe waited until the stretch was reached before he made his move. Blue Lick was right there at the finish. George Krats got into a jam on the first turn and was roughly treated. Loose Sleeve showed some speed, but about three-quarters of a mile is as far as she wants to go. Neither Tim Gaines or The Devil seem to be of much account. The latter pulled up lame.

Scratched—19214 Greatland, 105; 19376 Patroon, 101.

Overweights—George Krats, 1 pound.

Sam McKeever, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Einstein, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Blue Lick, show, 3 to 5. George Krats, place, evens; show, 3 to 5. The Devil, place, 2 to 1; show, evens.

Winner—B. h. by Hanover—Constantinople.
Went to post at 3:24. At post 2 1/2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Sanders was best and finished strongly. Waring showed all his speed, but quit badly in the last sixteenth. Meehanus closed very fast in the stretch. Charentus also closed a big gap. Maribert weakened in the closing drive. Mayor Gilroy, unlucky at the start, showed great speed, but tired. Smoke ran poorly.

Scratched—19174 Heliobas, 130; 19297 Firearm, 118.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bramble—Maid of Balgowan.
Went to post at 4:54. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Prince of Melbourne, the best, and splendidly ridden, wore down Brigadier's lead in the stretch and was going away at the end. Brigadier had plenty of speed, looked like the winner at the eighth pole, but was stopping in the last sixteenth. David Garrick ran well. Motley went a fast mile, but could not last the route.

Scratched—19334 Wooster Boy, 108.
